

Fold to Unfold a Sustainable Future

The Origami Calendar

Welcome to 2025! At NDB, we believe the future truly banks on us all. That's why this year's calendar is inspired by the UN Sustainable Development Goals, showcasing how we can work together to create a better Sri Lanka.

Each page transforms into a stunning origami creation—simply scan the QR code to launch Calendar Pal for folding instructions and to learn about your creation. By year's end, you'll have a beautiful collection of upcycled origami art.

Join us on this journey and share your masterpieces with #NDBCalendar2025

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

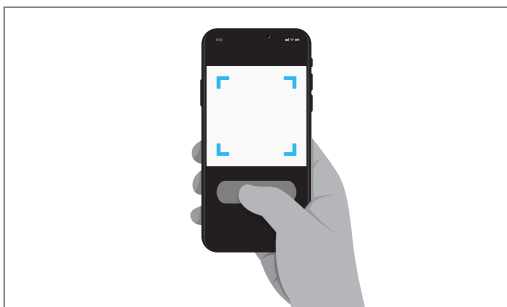

The UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) are 17 interconnected goals that represent humanity's shared blueprint for a better, more sustainable future, addressing challenges from poverty and inequality to climate change and environmental degradation. At NDB Bank, we believe these global goals have profound local significance for every Sri Lankan. As you transform this calendar into origami art, it will tell you the story of these goals through our island's unique lens.

Visit <https://www.un.org/sustainabledevelopment/> to find out more about SDGs.

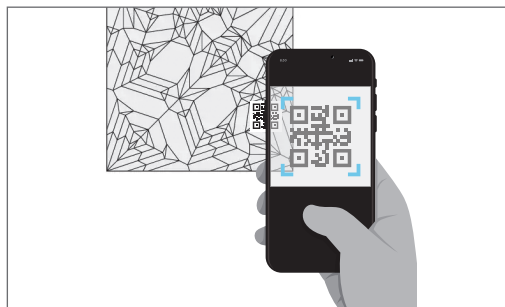

Hello friends!

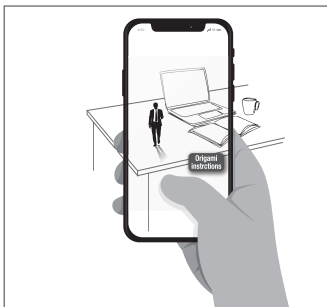

This year, we have woven Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), AR technology, and origami to bring you a creative, sustainable, and educational calendar experience like never before! Every month, we invite you to explore how we can all work towards a better country and better world, with a lovely origami piece for you to create.

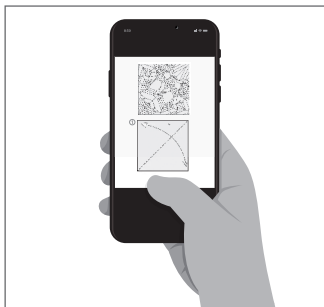

1. First, open the camera or the QR scanner of your smartphone.

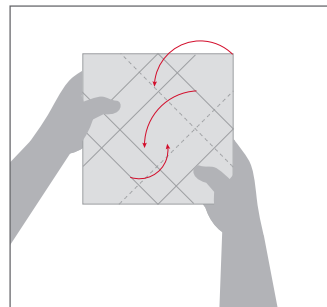

2. Then, open the calendar and scan the QR code on the page.

3. Calendar Pal will appear and tell you about the subject of the month's origami piece and the related SDGs.

4. You will be provided step-by-step folding instructions to create your origami piece.

5. At the end of each month, tear off the page from the perforation and create the relevant origami object.

MOUNTAIN | SDG 15

Our ancient hills tell a tale of balance lost. From the peaks of the Knuckles to the Southern hills, our mountains stand as witnesses to change. Each scar left on our landscape from deforestation and landslides is a reminder that safeguarding our communities means protecting Sri Lanka's forests by prioritising conservation.

HUMANS | SDG 5 & 10

In Sri Lanka's tapestry of cultures, true progress means leaving no one behind. Every child given the chance to dream, every woman the power to lead, every person a voice. From tea estates to tech start-ups, when we nurture young minds, empower women, and bridge social divides, we unlock the potential of our entire nation.

APPLE | SDG 2

At the crossroads where Sri Lanka's agricultural heritage meets innovative farming practices and mindful consumption, a hunger-free future waits to be unfolded. Our island is blessed with natural abundance and tackling food waste and supporting sustainable agriculture can ensure no Sri Lankan goes hungry.

HEART | SDG 3

From ancient Ayurvedic wisdom to innovative medical solutions, Sri Lanka's commitment to well-being runs deep. Our journey to universal healthcare reminds us that a thriving community beats with the strength of every heart it holds. After all, when we invest in health, we nurture not just bodies, but the heart of our nation.

TURTLE | SDG 14

As night falls on Sri Lanka's southern shores, sea turtles continue their timeless ritual of nesting in our golden sand, each carrying stories of perseverance that are lessons for us all. Through mindful tourism and support for coastal communities, spectators can become guardians of marine life and keep these nesting grounds safe.

WHALE | SDG 13 & 14

As guardians of our deep blue waters, whales tell the story of our changing seas. Their every breach above the waves is a barometer for climate change.

From the shores of Mirissa to the depths of the Indian Ocean, their survival is intertwined with our responsibility to protect our oceans and our planet's future.

MANGROVE TREE | SDG 14 & 15

Where land embraces sea, within the intricate root network of Sri Lanka's mangroves, lies a blueprint for our coasts' survival. These natural barriers shield our shores from erosion while nurturing the next generation of marine life, protecting communities, and showing us how nature's solutions are often the strongest.

ELEPHANT | SDG 15

Where village meets wilderness, Sri Lanka's gentle giants navigate a changing landscape. Every fold in this elephant reminds us that solutions to human-elephant conflict lie in our hands. Through sustainable land use and community-based conservation, we can create spaces where both nature and people can thrive.

GREEN BUILDING | SDG 9 & 11

Tomorrow's Sri Lanka rises from today's innovations. Across the island, every green building stands testament to possibility. From renewable energy to waste reduction, through sustainable architecture and mindful urban planning, fold by fold, we build communities where progress and planet thrive in harmony.

SCHOOLHOUSE | SDG 4

Within these paper walls lies the story of transformation. Every classroom in Sri Lanka holds dreams waiting to soar, and by continuing to write newer, better stories of learning, we can give them wings. By improving education for all, we can prove that knowledge is our most powerful tool for sustainable change and equality.

CAR | SDG 11 & 12

As our cities grow, so must our wisdom in moving through them. Sustainable transport isn't just about cleaner vehicles – it's about reimagining how we connect our communities. On Sri Lanka's evolving roads, from electric tuk-tuks to car-sharing platforms, smart mobility solutions pave the way to cleaner cities.

WIND TURBINE | SDG 7

Catching the winds of change, Sri Lanka turns toward a cleaner tomorrow. From Mannar's windswept shores to Hambantota's sunny plains, we harness nature's power. Each turbine represents our commitment to renewable energy, and every revolution of rotor blades brings us closer to an energy-independent future.
